

You must have a catalog.pdf file that yields “Table of Contents” type details on the contents of your project. It shall be called “catalog.pdf.” This file is to be placed in “Final Application” directory. Each element of your project, including its location, must be spelled out clearly in this document. Additionally, your Team Name, Team Members, Project Name and GitHub link should be included in this file.